

Council of Twelve, through Joan:

Take a deep breath... Centered in the moment.....

And welcome the Council of Twelve:

Greetings, We are the Council of Twelve.

And we are here to present another function of Light configurations that will become most valuable to you in the creation as an individual creator of matter and Light. The two have to go hand in hand.

The upgrades in the 1st and 2nd Triads were necessary for us to proceed in upgrading the 3rd and 4th Triads. In this session, we will focus on the upgrade of the 3rd Triad. The 3rd Triad consists of the Crown Chakra, The Soul Star Vortex, and the Higher Mind Chakra.

As the Crown Chakra opens, and widens, and stays open consistently, the flow of Light Prisms from the Creative Realms of Source are drawn into the Center Channel of the 5th Dimensional body. The influx of the Light Prisms creates a wide functional center channel of communication within the energetic system of both the Light Body and the physical body operating within the 5th, 6th, and 7th Dimensions.

Refined creative Light Prisms are seated in the Sacred Heart Center. The White Luminous Star Tetrahedron that holds the Consciousness of your SoulSpirit can now communicate to the Soul continually. This communication enhances the availability of what is known and drawn through this channel that relates to the Higher Mind. Your individual Higher Mind was merged with the Higher Mind of Source some time ago, in your time.

All communications of these Light Prisms are received in the Crown, flow through the Soul Star Vortex which holds your individual SoulSpirit at the first moment that your Spirit is given a Prime Directives and begins to communicate to the individual Soul and Soul purpose for a specific life experience.

Each Chakra of the 3rd Triad is an invaluable communication Light Vortex that continually receives from the Creative Source Realms. This communication is not limited to just one type of creative Light influx. There are multiples of different kinds of Light influxes that are transmitted from the first three Rays of Creation. The Rays of Creation are massive Rays of creative energetics that are used for many diverse purposes. They are transmitted and distributed according to the purpose of any specific creation.

The various types of creative Light configurations that are communicated by the 3rd Triad is vital for the unified function of the upper seven non-physical Chakras and the lower seven physical Chakras.

All of the different Light configurations are received and processed in the same progression. The Light Patterns are received in the Crown Chakra, processed through the Soul Star and the Higher Mind. Then, they flow through the Center Channel of the KA Body, which is your 5th Dimensional Etheric Body, and are seated in the Sacred Heart Center, where they are used by the physical Heart Chakra to further enforce the Element of Love's Presence in the human body.

This open-ended progression of various types of creative Light that stream from the 3rd Triad allows the White Star Tetrahedron to continually transmit increased Wisdom and Knowledge that relates to the Soul experience in a human body. The Wisdom and Knowledge that is in the White Star Tetrahedron can then be drawn from and used in the 2nd Triad to create form within form.

The Center Channel continually transmits communication from the Sacred Heart to the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd Chakras that are now part of your physical Heart Chakra and relate to your experience in a human body. The perpetual communication from your Sacred Heart Center into your physical Chakras flows through the Center Channel and then is seated in the Earth Star. The Center Channel carries Light transmissions that can be transferred in a spiraling sequence in both directions. The Center Channel that is continually used as a communication conduit for the Light transmissions is upgraded substantially, since you first began to use it in the beginning of your primary teachings.

The Light Prisms are accessible when used in the creative manifestation of the 5th, 6th, 7th Dimensional physical human bodies. They provide multiple ways in which to create form within form. The constant flow of Light Prisms through the Sacred Heart Center into your Heart Chakra expands a greater appreciation of yourself as a creative individual SoulSpirit in form that is created in the Image and Likeness of its Source. This recognition alone provides healing in the fractured Mental-Emotional Body.

The creative Light Prism was a gift from Source to help accelerate your Ascension path and keep you directly on the path. It has within its energetic composition all of the Color Codes and Sound Templates that you have used by differentiating the Light and using the different Codes for specific purposes. With the configuration of the Light Prisms, you are able to access them easily and precisely. The Color and Sound Codes also emanate at a much more refined octave of the 5th, 6th, and 7th Dimensions. They are magnetically balanced so there is a continual equilibrium. The electrical charges that emanate from the human thought are automatically tempered to match the magnetic symmetry. The various wave lengths of the Colors of the rainbow provide a coherent flow of Color Codes in the frequencies that are required for creation in matter. Because the Light Prisms regulate the many different speeds of Light that emanate from the creative realms, it provides a coherence and ease in your creation. There are no spikes or distorted energies in your creations.

The Light Prism also has an autonomic function that is very valuable to you. We have asked you to create and hold within your energetic system higher frequencies of Light. When you are within the Light Vortex of your upgraded Cosmic Crucible, you are able to hold a Light frequency of 150%. In your daily Life, many times outside influences cause the Light frequency to drop.

The autonomic function of this Light Prism allows you to maintain a continual integration and understanding of the various Teachings and Energetics that are transmitted to you. If your Light frequency drops below 150%, you will still be able to use the concepts and energetics coherently, but in the frequency range that you are currently holding. This is a gift that prevents you from misunderstanding a process and miscreating with it.

What a gift you have been given! Use it!

Let us now discuss the upgrade of the 3rd Triad and how that Triad becomes a bridge between the physical Chakras and the non-physical Chakras. In the 2019 Light Conference, you co-facilitated the activation of the Magenta Lotus that sits above the Crown Chakra of your 3rd Triad. This magnificent, radiant, thousand-petaled Lotus holds vast Memory Codes of your Mastery. Because each one of you has a precise iteration of this wonderful Magenta Lotus, those Memory Codes are specific to you.

In the 2019 Conference, you received a refined iteration of the Magenta Color Codes from the Central Sun. They were transmitted into the 4th Triad in a continual circular motion. You directed the Magenta Color Code into your thousand-petaled Lotus into your 3rd Triad, filling your 3rd Triad with this refined Magenta Code.

Take a deep breath here.....

Notice in your field that beautiful Magenta Lotus..... floating above your Crown.....

How radiant it is.

How accessible it is!

Now, with your intention, activate your Memory Codes as the brilliant Magenta Light is infusing your entire body system with more Light.

This includes all of your functioning DNA Strands, Helixes, and Light Packets.

Take a deep Breath.....

Now pay attention! These refined Color Codes that were transmitted from the Central Sun from the Creative Realms of Source were presented in specific Light configurations of a Prism. However, at that time, you were not conscious of it. You were not conscious enough to use it accurately. But now, you are.

Because of the Presence of the 2nd Ray of Creation, the Prism configuration of Light has the capacity to step down or accelerate the Color Code Energetics simply by implementing a different Color Code. The Prism configuration of Light allows for the Codes within the Magenta Color to be used in multiple ways. The Code can be accelerated or change its Color entirely for a specific purpose in your creation.

For example, part of that Magenta Coding is a Blue Color Code, which relates to the emotions and brings the emotions up to a higher refined state. So, you are specific in your creation, when you do that. You direct the Color Code according to your needs at any particular time.

The Prism also contains Sounds that are related to the Color Code. Many of these Sounds cannot be heard by the human ear. Nevertheless, they still are a potent enhancement to any creation. Your personal Sound Code that was imprinted on your SoulSpirit is a valuable part of your energetic system as a creator of Light in form.

Take a deep breath.....

As the Magenta Color Codes circulates throughout the 3rd and 4th Triads, they facilitate the many Holographic Light frequencies that were used in several previous Teachings throughout Seating of the Divine. And those Holographs turn back on. These Holographs can now be accessed by you at a higher frequency, because you have an accelerated state of Consciousness and the Energetics to use what can be found in these Holographs.

Can you see how valuable this is to you as you review, this next few weeks, the 3rd and 4th Triad?

Breathe.....

Notice how this Magenta Color Code moves down the Center Channel of the body, where it enters the 2nd Triad. Observe the Seed Crystals in the center of your physical head. See how the Magenta has altered the Brilliance of these Seed Crystal as they continually reflect the Light. The Seed Crystals are now humming at more than one tone. There is a universal tone, a galactic tone, a cosmic tone, and finally your personal tones that you received when your Prime Directive, Color Codes, and Sound Codes were given to you.

This is important for you to remember now. Your personal energetics upgrades are equally as important as the upgrades we have been talking about. You are the Master Creator in form that uses all of these Light configurations. They are the tools of your trade, so to speak.

Deep Breath.....

The Magenta Lotus sits between the Crown Chakra and the Soul Star for a specific purpose. It carries your Master Memory Codes. The Soul Star communicates these Memory Codes to you through the Voice of your Soul, as they are needed in your creations. Now, that Voice may be, if you are clairaudient, a voice. It may be a Knowing that you have drawn from the Wisdom of that Soul. It may be a vision. Whatever is what you use to draw into your Consciousness an awareness.

You have the capacity to use Color, Sound and various Light configurations to be a Master Creator in form. The vast Undifferentiated Light is now seated in your body, when you differentiate it for use in your Triadic system. The Triadic system creates Unity between the physical and the non-physical realms of Creation. You, now, are learning to merge the non-physical with the physical. This is the direction of your path, Beloveds. You are beginning to recognize and travel in non-physical ways that affect your physical consciousness.

So much has been given in these last few communications! So, it will require of you integration time. But it will require of you much of your physical time. So, here is where you make your choice about what is really important. And you can manage life in a physical body and creations from the non-physical realms. You are a capable Master Creator.

We would like to complete this session by talking about the importance of the bridging system that is now in play because of the many upgrades that have been made. The first bridge is created by the Presence of the Magenta thousand-petaled Lotus that floats above the Crown in a space between the Crown and Soul Star. It provides Memory Codes that your Soul carries as a creator in form. It also carries refined Color and Sound Codes from the many Light emanations that are transmitted from the All That Is.

The 3rd Triad also contributes to the bridging of the 3rd and 4th Triads, because it continually transmits unifying energetic communication between the first seven chakras, the physical Chakras, and the non-physical aspects of the second seven Chakras that are above the physical body. The Center Column of the body is enhanced by the various configurations that are received and then are transmitted through the Crown Chakra and sent down the through the Center Channel of the body. The bridging of the 3rd and 4th Triads unifies the entire fourteen-Chakra system.

There will be another bridge that you will create when it is time to activate the 5th Triad. There's much yet to do in the 3rd and 4th Triads, as well as the 1st and 2nd.

[26:46] So, take a deep breath now.....

And let us guide you into receiving a beautiful Prism of Light from the Creative Realms.....

Be very centered in your body..... Very centered in your Sacred Heart Center.

Notice how your Crown is open wide.

For many of you, that 3rd Triad opening is the entire circumference of your cranium, your top, your physical crown center.

Notice, also, that Center Column that extends from your Soul Star, all the way through your body, and is anchored in your Earth Star.

What a valuable Communication Center this is!

Now, draw from the Creative Realms of Source and pull in this beautiful emanation of a Prism of Light.

Notice how it comes directly into that beautiful, anticipating Crown Chakra.....

As it enters the Crown Chakra, it flows then into the Soul Star, where it is received and further processed through the Higher Mind, as it is merged with the Mind of the All That Is.....

From there, it flows down the Center Channel of the body into the 1st Triad, into the Sacred Heart Center, where it is used by a Luminous White Star Tetrahedron & a beautiful Sapphire Blue Star Tetrahedron.....

It then flows into the Earth Star, where it radiates all of the functions of that Earth Star that can be seen and received by the Elemental Community of Earth.

And that can be drawn from the Sacred Heart of the Earth.....

As you receive this Gift of Source, in this particular configuration, and you anchor it in the Earth Star,
you gift it to Mother Earth... and the Elemental Community.....

It doesn't negate any effect you can get from the fullness of this Light Prism.

It has an unlimited Light emanation, creative Light emanation, that can never dwindle or be less effective.

Now return your Consciousness into your Sacred Heart Center, into the 1st Triad, and see how magnificent that Light Prism radiates a creative Energetic that is most usable and can be drawn from continually in the functioning of all parts of that 1st Triad, all parts of the 2nd Triad, all parts of the 3rd Triad, and all parts of the 4th Triad.....

Be in gratitude for the Gift you have been given and the upgrade that has begun in your energetic system.

[34:22]

It will take you some time to integrate all of this and use it.

And you integrate it by using it.

You can't just be sitting there listening to a recording or seeing the Energetics move. You have to use it in the 2nd Triad, so that you learn how valuable it is and how usable it is in your creations as an individual creator not only of Light, but creator of form.

You will alter substantially the consciousness of your body by using this particular Light configuration in the 2nd Triad.

And notice how effective that autonomic function of the Light Prism is, in that you have an understanding, once you leave here; you don't lose anything once you exit this Crucible. The understanding and the Energetics availability to you will always be there.

And with that, Beloveds, we will close our session at this time.
Blessings!
