

Melainah: Welcome, everyone.

We thought we'd have a little chat with you about a couple of things, before we get into our processes for tonight.

The first one is about the facebook page. And you guys have been really good about responding to each other's questions. And we want to encourage you to do that more and more.

If you have a question that is related to something we have done in the class, then Joan and I will respond as well. But if it's a broader question, we're gonna leave that up to the Community to respond to one another. And if along the way, there is some clarification that is needed, Joan and I might jump into that. But this facebook page is for you to support one another as we go through this Journey together. So thank you for everybody who has responded.

And if you don't get your question answered sufficiently or satisfactorily enough for you, then you can reach out again and ask Joan or I to respond if you need more clarity.

Joan: I think that it's so important now that you use this facebook page. The Mastery you carry is very valuable as a member of this Council. So, to be able to share that Mastery with one another is a big step that you're taking here. And to communicate that stream of consciousness..... there is so much in that stream of consciousness that will be awakened in you in the next several months. And to be able to share that with others in the Community who have a different stream of consciousness, and they have their gifts to share. And there will be time for that, as we move, as we get these foundational processes integrated.

So, learning to share that stream of consciousness when you have a Knowing about something that is being discussed, or there is a question asked. And if it is about a specific session or a teaching that we have just done, of course Melainah and I are always there to respond to that.

Melainah: Before we go on to our next discussion, I just want to make another real quick announcement to you. So, our next meeting will be on Sunday, March 20, which is also the Spring Equinox. So this meeting will be very, very important. Please plan to join us live if at all possible. And around March 14, begin watching your email for any email that will come from us that will contain information about preparing yourself for the March 20 Gathering.
