

Closing with Magdalene and Yeshua Session 4g

Melainah:

Stay conscious and aware. Emerging within the center vortex of this brilliant Light, and presenting to us in their highest elevated bodies of Light that we are capable of perceiving from our state of consciousness, let us welcome the Magdalene and Yeshua.

As they greet you, allow yourself to be embraced by their breath-takingly beautiful Divine essence.

In their presence, your 8th dimensional crystalline Sacred Heart is opening to its maximum. Feel it expand within your being. Allow it to be filled with this state of frequencies of this Light. Be in a state of grace as you receive their sacred blessing, which they are transmitting to you in this very moment. Take another breath.

Having received their blessing, Yeshua and Miriam are extending their hands to you, inviting you to join with them in the center of this unimaginable vortex of radiating Luminous Light.

As you enter, you see that there are three chairs placed in a circle. You are offered a seat and they each take a chair beside you. The Magdalene then extends her hand that is closest to you, palm up, for you to place your palm on hers. Yeshua extends his hand that is closest to you, palm up, and you place your other palm on his. They then join their other hands together, placing them palm to palm.

With the circuit complete, be aware of the Light frequencies now flowing to and through you in a circular spiraling pattern, moving from one; from the Magdalene to Yeshua to You; the Magdalene to Yeshua and to You; as it spirals and spirals.

Take another breath. And own this moment as the magnificent Being of Light that You Are. Allow Your Self to become completely immersed as they both continue embedding higher and higher frequencies of their sacred Cosmic Light to You. And breathe. Take it all in.

Continue to take deep breaths as they begin transmitting this message to you: Our beloved Child, welcome. You have done well, and we are both so very proud of all you have accomplished.

This journey has returned you at last to the place of remembering who you are and why you chose to incarnate once again in physicality at this time on Earth. Of course, one of those reasons being that in this lifetime, you came to assist in completing the mission we began over 2000 years ago.

Whether you walked the Earth with us in physical form long ago, or were part of the planning council, or were one of those in non-physical who spoke to us in our darkest hour. We are with you now; to assist, support, and witness as you continue your Ascension journey, and you complete the Ascension template.

Over these next weeks, you are invited to return to this hallowed space daily and sit with us. We will begin each visit with the joining of palms, as we have today, to set the energetics in motion for that day. During your visits, we will be transmitting and transferring to you some of the elements that were part of our original mission, that are still relevant today.

Now, some of these aspects will be specific to your Soul Spirit and Prime directive. Others will be for your group Prime directives and the Ascension template. But all the energetics, and frequencies and transmissions will support you as you continue your mission. You will benefit personally in ways you cannot yet conceive, as you continue your walk on this beautiful Earth.

We will also begin transmitting to you an entirely new sequence of Ascension Light frequencies. We will also prepare you for the next iteration of the Unity template, and the unlimited creative power of Love, emanating from Source. Over the remaining months of this year, your understanding of the meaning and true essence of the power of Love from the realms of Source will increase exponentially, as the state of Soul and Spirit wisdom you possess, continues to accelerate.

Also during our times together, multiple significant upgrades and major transformation that are specific to you will be offered. They will require your commitment and participation, however.

So as you can see, we have much to accomplish and put in play during our visits; most of which you will not have conscious memory of until the topics are presented in your meetings. We look forward to the experiences we will share.

Now we invite you to remain with us at this time for as long as you would like. But before we end our message to you, we'd like to share with you this memory.

At the conclusion of our lifetimes and missions of over 2000 years ago, each one of us renewed a promise, which had been imprinted and encoded within our Souls.

The Promise was: that somewhere in another time, we would come together again and attempt to fulfill the most sacred ancient Prophecy ever given. As the end of the Piscean age is drawing to a close, the conditions are once again favorable.

The very last thing that occurred before you left the realm of non-physical, just as you were about to enter your chosen body for this incarnation, we whispered to your beautiful Soul, these coded ancient words of the Prophecy: The Time Returns.
