August 11, 2024

Session 8a Welcome

Joan: Well, hello everyone. Welcome to this very special gathering of the 8-8-8 Sirian Stargate. This is a very special time for each one of us and for our group as a Collective consciousness. Melainah, you want to say hello?

Melainah: Yes. Hello, everybody. So, before we get started today, because this is a big, big event; just wanted to say these few words to you.

So, in this single session, from the second we begin here in a moment, until we close today, we will be receiving the most concentrated and most massive configurations of Light that we have ever, ever received or ever perceived.

So, take about sixty seconds to prepare yourself, and make sure you have everything you need for this unprecedented event.

So, let us get started.
Deep breath, and we will begin.
