

John Intro: [Slightly edited]

Well, I'm sure you all already know why we are here today as a special project. We have some power of our own as a group. And we need to use it to keep everything.... or get it back to normal! This is a special service session for the Gridmaster group.

With all of the destruction going on in our country and many more around the globe, Lord Metatron wanted a special session. And he felt it was needed. He needs our help. And obviously we need his.

So today we'll start with a centering meditation from Archangel Gabriel, followed by a message from Lord Metatron, and also a couple of folks that will have some comments in between. And then after that, Lord Metatron will have a special message for us and will close the session with a meditation.

[2:08] Archangel Gabriel Introductory Comments:

Greetings, Beloveds, It is I, Gabriel.

I come forth from the Archangelic Realm, but all members of our Realm are present with you at this time.

These are very auspicious times, as we have said to you often. But this time of chaos is extremely important to bring about change in a system – worldwide, not just the United States, but worldwide – that is in need of change and movement into the 5th Dimension.

So, you will see a lot of chaos in the next six to eight months of your time on various fronts. And it is very important that you stand with us, centered in the Light that you ARE and contribute to the solution of the chaos, not contribute to it.

So, this day, I am present as an Archangelic of Light, carrying the Light of Source to be distributed in worlds of form that are in need of Resurrection and Ascension.

It is very important, Beloveds, that you hold fast to the Light frequencies that you have developed over the last several years of your time. You've been very diligent in creating this Light within you individually and Collectively. This is important for you to recognize and embrace continually, regardless of what the outside influence looks like.

You are a Force to be reckoned with as a Collective Consciousness of Light.

[4:49] Gabriel Centering Meditation:

So take a deep breath, now....

Recognize who you ARE....

See the Light that you carry...

and the impact that Light can have on all Humans and the Earth, itself.....

Another deep breath.....

You are now in your Light Body.....

And your Light Garment is radiant with the Sacred Names emblazoned on it.....

Recognize that you now enter your Merkaba Vehicle.

You command it to activate at 100% Light.....

You as a Being of Light in your Light Body now are capable of transmitting Light at 100% and increasing that 100% to 130% at this very moment.....

You need to carry the highest frequency of Light with you in this moment.....

and during this entire year.....

We are here to support you in your call to service, which is so needed, this call to service that you have been preparing for, for several years.....

See the spinning of your Merkaba Field.....

All parts of it:

You in your Light Body,

The White Luminous Tetrahedron, spinning and spinning at 130% Light,

And the deep Purple Tetrahedron, also spinning at 130% Light.....

The entire Merkaba Field is now functioning in Resonance, in complete Light.....

You are Light.....

You are capable, and you are powerful.....

Now, take another deep breath.....

And now let us begin our service.....

[9:00] Joan and the visual/video of the Pink Diamond and base cube:

Before I deliver the message from Metatron today and our Meditation to transmit this Light that is so needed and the Templates of Love and the Light Templates of Unity, Unity Consciousness -- there are a few members of our Community who have been working diligently to create a visual of what happened in our last two sessions, where we activated a portion of the Pink Diamond, not from the stance of the Color Code of Magenta, but the basic Unity and Love Consciousness Pink Diamond.

And we also activated a portion of the cubic configuration that Humanity has been using since the fall of Consciousness and elevating that into a more 5th Dimensional functioning.

So, we all learn in different ways. Some learn by reading it and digesting it. Some learn by hearing it, especially those of us who are clairaudient. Some have to feel the Energetics of their clairsentience. But some of us are very visual and have to either visualize or see it to be able to embrace and also to digest and integrate the Energetics. Because that is the whole purpose of these activations – to receive them, integrate them, and then know what we are to do with them.

So I would like to call on Melainah, because she was very involved with Kathleen McGarry, Pat and Andy Austin, and Ann Crawford. They got together in a group and created this visual for us, because they were kind of confused.

Melainah: So Kathleen reached out and said there was a little confusion about some of the things we put in place on our last two Gatherings together. So she with her group discussing it have put together a great little video demonstrating the spin of the base cube and the Pink Diamond. And she has posted that on the Seating of the Divine facebook page for all of you. And they've done a really good job.

Kathleen: I just want to thank you, Melainah, for helping us understand this.

I'm one of those visual people, so there was just some confusion for me because I couldn't really see it.

Basically, I did a drawing of the cube, moving to the diamond. These are very rudimentary drawings, but I put them on the video. It basically just talks about the clockwise spin of the Pink Diamond and the basic cube spinning counterclockwise.

So I just created a bit of a visual, because when I can see it, I can feel it. And I think that for those of us in the group who are visual it might be helpful.

Kathleen, cont'd: It also was so good for me to review it with Melainah, because there were details that I missed. And so I had to go back over the transcripts. And thank you, Joan, for sending them to me, too. Joan sent them earlier in the week and highlighted them. And I'm like, "I still don't see it!" So I appreciate it. Everyone was so patient with my learning curve.

I just did a bunch of pencil sketches and put in the pillars of Light and created this kind of picture for me of a clockwise and a counterclockwise rotation, so it's like a Merkaba counter-rotating field between the upper Pink Diamond that we're all familiar with and then this new cube configuration.

And the thing that I discovered in my own Energy work is that in Energy Medicine, when we're clearing Energy, we go counterclockwise. So I thought it was interesting that our cube is moved to the diamond and is actually being rotated to clear those anomalies – very slowly. And then the Pink Diamond configuration is magnetizing those Energies through the Columns of Light in a clockwise rotation.

So, it's kind of like when you're putting in a light bulb. You're bringing the Energy in from the Pink Diamond. It's like literally like bringing it down. And then those other Energies are being cleared and blending and magnetizing.

It helped me to put that together. I hope it's helpful for other people. If not, please give us feedback.

Melainah: It is really helpful. And thank you. And it's just important that we are clear on what we have built, because we can see from the events that are unfolding how timely putting this into place was. And so that certainly our Teachers of Light were aware of what was on the horizon. And that's why this was put in place.

So, if there are any further questions, just reach out and let us know.

But otherwise, let's move on and bring Metatron back. And let's take care of our business for today.

Joan: I wanted to clarify this part before we started, because Metatron has a very purposeful reason why he called this meeting and the message he wants to deliver. Obviously, they have, like Melainah said, have set all this in motion ahead of time. And it pushed us energetically. I don't know about every member, but – it was a LOT to comprehend and work with in such a short period of time. But it's so important for these current times and what we will be seeing in this coming year.

So, with that, let's all take a deep breath and welcome Lord Metatron.

[17:27] Metatron Message: Greetings, It is I, Metatron.

I come to the forefront as the spokesperson of a Quadratic Configuration of myself, Archangel Uriel, Lord Melchizedek, and Yeshua. This Quadratic Configuration that we have spoken to you from and often used recently will become more relevant as this year unfolds and the activation of this basic cube, distorted cube, begins to be transformed.

So, the message that I would like to convey today is that you have agreed to this call of service. And you have been prepared very precisely to deal with and to hold very stably the Energetics that you have been given.

It is important in these times, these chaotic times, that you not take sides and that you stay out of reaction. It is very mesmerizing from a physical standpoint to get into reaction. I am not saying that you should not have an opinion. But I am saying reaction is NOT where you need to be. It is so important now, more than ever, to stay neutral, out of reaction.

As you all know, your media is very distorted. And so, do not contribute to that distortion by reacting. This, as I can tell you, is very mesmerizing to the physical body and to the emotional body, because it gives you an emotional high to be in such reaction. But when you are in the reaction, you cannot see clearly. When you take divided sides, you cannot see the Unity before you. And you cannot see how all positions have some sort of validity. But they are also steeped in distortion of that cubic function that brings things into form.

So you, as Beings of Light who have agreed to help in this transition, in this Ascension process, have been called forth in this next year to hold stably Unity and the Element of Love. When you jump on someone else's train of thought, you cannot be clear. You cannot use that 3rd Eye of yours and see clearly any distortion.

So I'm going to remind you at this time that the first thing you have to recognize is the element of power -- power over, control. If that is present, be very careful. The next thing is if the Element of Love is not present, that serves All, not just a select few, but All, regardless of race, creed, ethnic background – it doesn't matter. They are all Beings of Light, created by Prime Creator, your Creator. If there is no Unity there, no Equilibrium, there is this radical high and low, blame, shame, right/wrong.

Yes, there are some things that are unacceptable! But it still remains your duty, Beloveds, to remain very neutral and stable, so that you can see clearly with that 3rd Eye that you have been developing for several years, so you see the clarity. There are so many smokescreens out there now that if you are not stably centered in your Sacred Heart, in this Pink Diamond that you have been working with, you will not recognize the distortion.

[23:41] Metatron Message, cont'd:

So, it is so important in these times that you allot a time of prayer and meditation, because this chaos is going to continue. It is designed to create change. And change at the human level, at that 3rd-4th Dimensional level is very messy and very chaotic. And when you recognize this, you have a greater ability to hold that stability. And with the 6th & 7th Dimensional Light Templates that you have embodied, this will help you immeasurably.

So create a space for yourself to nurture yourself, to see how you hold, with stability, the 5th-6th-7th Dimensional Light Templates, and to know that you carry in everything you create the Element of Love, and that there are unlimited possibilities in these times of change.

So, we will meet again next week for your regular scheduled Grid Master call. This is an important time prior to the United States inaugurating a president and the misinformation that will be out there -- the various claims and mis-claims. So, it is important that we join again in this call of service to hold and transmit clearly, stably, these Elements of Unity, Peace, Harmony.

As the year progresses, we have been asked to comment on will there be a time of rest and silence. Yes, you must have this time, because you were given a massive amount of vast Energetics that you must take into your body, into that Light Body, and digest and integrate. But you are also human and we recognize that. And you need the support of your groups, of your individual groups.

So our suggestion is this: to meet rather than weekly every other week. And the off week, remain in silence, prayer, and meditation. And even in those weeks that you have Gridmaster calls or that you have your individual group meetings, you can still allot that private time for you to work with the Triadic system that you've been taught, which increases your Light. And work with these Elements and the Equilibrium that they bring to your physical body.

Not only is change demanded now into a more 5th Dimensional state for all humans and for the Earth, itself, there are processes that will facilitate that change at a physical level. And you are very well aware of them. So take advantage of your meditation time and use them for yourself, so that when you transmit, you transmit this Light Energy and these Templates, these creative Templates, in integrity, in Power and Force needed to stave off this chaos and confusion of so many humans that do not have the Consciousness that you have.

[28:37] Metatron Message, cont'd:

So, yes, meet with your groups every other week for support. Meet, meditate, discuss your problems in holding stability and give suggestions to those in your Community that are struggling.

They may be struggling with their own issues of distortion, because I do tell you that not only is this distortion within humans that are not seated firmly in 5th Dimension, and in the Earth itself, but these distortions surface in you, in things that are out of alignment in your mental-emotional body.

So what causes those reactions? What causes those feelings of negativity?

So you will be called upon not only to hold the Light stably but to hold it for yourself and to address any anomalies that might surface, so that you might remain clear during this entire year and perform the duty of your call for service, because we depend on you.

You are not the only group that is participating in these calls to service and holding the Light, but you are a very valued and powerful group. So, we are very dependent. You are the Ones in the body. You are the Ones that will create the change in your body and in the body of humanity.

So, with that, that is the conclusion of my message.

As needed, over the months of this year, when it is needed, we Lords of Light or Masters or Archangels will be available to be of assistance. But know that your entire Crucible of every member of this Crucible are here to support you: the Lords of Light, the Elohim, the Archangels, the Ascended Masters, those from the Star Gates that have been opened and are transmitting to you at this very moment -- the Sirians, the Pleiadians, the Arcturians, and of course the Andromedans, who will be transmitting from the Blue Crystal of Wisdom and also the Green of Love, Undifferentiated Love.

So take a deep breath and let us begin this service now.

[32:12] Metatron Call to Service Meditation utilizing our rotating Pink Diamond:

In your Light Body, in your Merkaba Field, joined in the Center with all members of the Crucible,
We now begin to see that slow rotation of the Pink Diamond.....

And we see in the Center of that Pink Diamond that great Pillar of Unity that Yeshua and Mary Magdalene firmly transmit.

And you join in that transmission now, transmitting the Element of Love and the Equilibrium of Unity that brings about Peace..... on Earth....

Peace in the entire Galaxy.....
Peace within Human Iterations.....

And unlimited potential to create that Unity and Peace
that serves all Humans,
serves the Earth,
serves all of the Elements of the Earth,
where there is clarity, conciseness, power --

Power that exhibits the Unity and the solution that removes the hurt and the pain that humans and the Earth have suffered since the fall of consciousness.....

And in its place is this beautiful Pink Diamond of Love and Unity.....
And it has movement -- slow, slow, now -- that you are a part of.....
But it will continue.....

And as humans who are not as familiar as you are or carry the Light that you carry begin to see the need for change and begin to create the change that is needed, that spin will begin to rotate in a much more productive rotation, bringing out a vaster solution to the fallen template.

These are times when all the Elements of the fallen World, of the fallen Consciousness of the Earth and of Humanity, are about to be changed.
You are here to reclaim Mother Earth and reclaim Human creativity in its highest form...

At this moment, I want you to take a deep breath.....
And begin to radiate the highest frequency of Love and Unity that is within your Light Body, that is within your Merkaba Field,
And transmit that Love and Unity at this moment.....

We will sit in unison to transmit this Energetic download into the Earth and for the reception of all Humans who can receive.

We will sit together in this transmission for the next five minutes..... [Long Pause]

And so it is. We will close this Gathering. It is time.
And we encourage you to transmit these Energetics often.....
Blessings!
