

Joan: Good Morning, Everyone.

Melainah: Good Morning and welcome back for the third day of our Conference. We hope you all slept well. We did! We were pretty exhausted after yesterday. The Energies were off the charts, to say the least, for the last two days. And this morning will start off pretty much the same way.

But before we get started, some of you were wanting to know where the placement of our new Beings on our chart was. And our fantastic graphic artist, Miss Kimberly, has created this* for us this morning. She has posted this on the facebook page along with another awesome graphic she created.

[This* is the Pink Diamond diagram with the placement of the four new Beings. It was the background to Joan and Melainah on the Zoom screen. This diagram is also included at the end of this transcription.]

An Ra Ta is that northwest quadrant. Sar Ra Zon is in the northeast quadrant. And the southeast quadrant, which you can't see on our screen, is ToA Ma. And Mei Q in the southwest quadrant. [pronounced May Q]

So these Great Beings, when they joined us yesterday....

Yesterday, if you remember, when we went into the Center of the Pink Diamond, we talked about those Platinum Light Rays that are now infusing the Magenta Color Coding.

All these Grand Beings came in on that Platinum Light Ray. The Magdalene has now joined the Center with Yeshua. And we're most pleased to have all these Grand Beings here and supporting us.

So, everybody take a deep breath....

Relax yourselves.....

Be centered in our Crucible.....

Feel the expansion of the Energies of these past two days, as they filled the space.....

So say Good Morning to all the Grand Beings who support us on every step of this Journey.

Now, please join me in welcoming Archangel Gabriel for our Centering Meditation this morning.

[2:41] Gabriel Centering Meditation:

Greetings, It is I, Gabriel.

We welcome you to this Crucible.

All members of the non-physical members greet you with great Love and Gratitude for what you are participating with us in and accomplishing in the physical realm.

We come to you in the Quantum field.

So, if you will now begin to notice yourself
in your Light Body..... in your Quantum Field of Light –
that beautiful creative space,
where you have unlimited opportunities to create in the realm of form.....

This is why you have come.

And you are now able to be in your full expression of SoulSpirit, using a physical body in the highest expression of your Divinity.

So take a deep breath...
And be present in this very moment.....

Be present with us,
joined in our Crucible...
in the Quantum Field...
in your Light Body.....

Feel the shift and changes that have occurred within our Crucible and your ability to begin to acquaint yourself with this vast creative energetic Field.....

Each time you consciously access this Field of Creative Energy, you reinforce and help integrate that within your Unified Field.....

You become familiar with this Field of Creative Energy;
You begin to know it intimately..... [Pause]

Now take a deep breath....
Very present in this moment....
Very anchored in your Light Body.....

And now welcome Yeshua.....
