

Mariam, the Magdalen, and Yeshua (through Melainah):

Beloved Ones,

Yeshua and I are honored to be joining you at this time of these Cosmic Star alignments, occurring on your Solstice Day. This coincides with the week that many of you gather to celebrate the birth of Yeshua and the seeding of Christ Consciousness on the Planet.

Here we are, now 2000 years later, to not only witness but to assist in ushering in the beginning of a New Age.

You who are gathered here today, because of what you have been able to achieve in these past few months, have allowed the timeline to be accelerated. You have been asked to once again step into your Collective Mastery and assist in bringing in and setting in place the next Iteration of the Christ Consciousness, expanding this Matrix.

This Iteration will bring in fully the Light Template of Unity Consciousness and the Element of Love. This Iteration comes directly from the Realm of the All That Is. This will herald what has been referred to as the New Earth.

This Unity Template with the Element of Love is another massive Holographic Light Template and holds the frequencies of Unification and Balance in all things.

This Template also provides the pathway of Balance between Humans and the natural world, as it was originally intended. The original 12th Dimensional Blueprint of the Elements that you brought in during your Light Conference will help to facilitate the return to Balance of the natural world and a higher Consciousness of Humans.

This Light Template holds and will firmly set in place the Unified expressions of the Sacred Feminine and the Sacred Masculine, as it was created by the Source of the All That Is.

What is beginning today is a multi-layered activation, with some segments of it occurring today and the rest on the 31st.

Creating your Personal Pillar of Light was the 1st Step.....

Take a breath.....

[3:45] Standing in the Center of your Pink Diamond Configuration, Yeshua and I have merged our Unified Fields.

We bring forth, directly from Source, this massive Unification Light Template – arriving on the Platinum Ray..... [Slight Pause]

We ask for your assistance now to stably hold the Balance at each of your points, as this Template of pure radiant Light anchors into the Center of the Pink Diamond.

This will take a moment or so.....

[Significant Pause]

Excellent Job, everyone!

Let's continue.....

Yeshua and I, remaining in our merged state, will now begin to further stabilize each point and each group of Human Light Pillars.

We will begin with the North Point:

We are projecting a beam of Platinum Light that contains the Unity Template to your group... Receive it now, and allow it to permeate you and your Personal Pillar of Light... Allow that Platinum Light to continue to flow and anchor at your Point.....

We will now turn to the South Point and project a beam of Platinum Light containing the Unity Template with the Element of Love to your group... Receive it now..... And allow it to permeate you and your Personal Light Pillar..... And allow that Platinum Light to continue to flow and anchor it at your Point.....

We will now turn to the East Point and are projecting the beam of Platinum Light that contains the Element of Love and the Unity Template to your group..... Receive it now.... And allow it to permeate you and your Personal Light Pillar..... Allow that Platinum Light to continue to flow and anchor it at the East Point.....

We will now turn to the West Point and are projecting this beautiful, radiant beam of Platinum Light that contains the Unity Template and the Element of Love to your group..... Receive it now... and allow it to permeate you and your Personal Light Pillar..... Allow that Platinum Light to continue to flow and anchor it at your Point in the West.....

These Platinum Rays of Light, emanating from the Unification Light Template at the Center of the Pink Diamond and connecting each of the four Points will remain and become a permanent part of the Pink Diamond.....

[10:40] Now that these are in place and we have Coherency between the Center and all four Points, Yeshua and I will begin a very slow clockwise spin of the entire Pink Diamond Configuration.....

Allow the gentle spin of your personal Pillar of Light to find Coherency with the spin of the Pink Diamond.....

As this occurs, maintain your Balance and that of your Point.....

[Pause]

Your personal Pillar of Light and the Pink Diamond will continue to spin in unison over the next ten days to give you time to acclimate to all that has occurred today, before we meet again.

Yeshua and I will remain in the Center Point to maintain the stability and flow of all the dynamics in play here. The four Archangelics that maintain the integrity of each Point of your Pink Diamond will also be in assistance.

So, please sit in the massive frequencies for a moment, and then Metatron will return.

Until next time, Blessings, Dear Ones!
